or machines, and the speedway management so construed it.

only Four Guests Present Besides the Legal Witnesses-Luncheon Afterward in the Bois-Sitory of Near Romance of the Singer and the Sheriff.

PARIS, June 18.-Robert Winthrop Chan-Paris. The witnesses for Mile. Cavalieri were the Italian painter Pezzella and the Syanish basso Segurola of the Metropolitan Opera Company. Mr. Chanler's witnesses were Messrs. Robin and Loeb. The ceremony was secret to the extent that the only persons present, besides the four witnesses, were the bride's mother, her brother, her friend Mrs. Baskerville of New York and William Chanler. After the wedding the party motored to Bois de Boulogne, where they had a happy mechen at the Pavilion Armenonville. The plans of the newly married couple have not yet been settled.

About February 1 a report got around that Robert Winthrop Chanler was to marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a House singer, formerly of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a House singer, formerly of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a House singer, formerly of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan the marry Lina Cavalieri, the Manhattan there a Month of the marry Lina Cavalieri and the there was mot stall the marry Lina Cavalieri and the marry Lina Cavalieri and the t tipera House singer, formerly of the The former Sheriff was aracd about it. He said he couldn't tell. He had asked Miss Cavalieri, but hadn't heard from her. On April 15 announcement was made that Miss Cavalieri had cabled from Paris to New York to say she'd take Chanler for better or worse the wedding to be in New York in the The singer's cablegram read: I accept your proposition if you can war until October, when I return to America. Friendship and love. Answer by relegraph. Return of telegraph brought this from Sheriff Bob: "Very well, I accept your proposition. It is a long wait, but wise. The wait turned out to be a short wait. Robert Winthrop Chanler is a grandson of John Jacob Astor and a brother of former Lieutenant-Governor Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler and of William Astor Robert Chanler was divorced from his first wife, Julia R. Chamberlain, in May, 1907, a decree having been granted to the wife in Paris. The news of the divorce did not come out until almost a year later. Mrs. Chanler received the estody of their two children. Lina Cavalieri is a Roman by birth. She is called by those fond of giving titles the most beautiful woman in the

She is about 33 years old. She a French subject. When Oscar Hammerstein sold out to the Metropolitan and some doubt existed as to whether Mme. Cavalieri would re-turn in the fall Chanler thought the circomstances required urgent action. He went to Paris in the middle of May and tound Miss Cavalieri ill. In the mean-time she had been interviewed by Paris reporters on her matrimonial prospects

There is nothing exciting about this There is nothing exciting about this engagement. My views on marriage have been expressed already, and I am living up to them. Mine is not a romance. It has taken me four months to make up my mind to accept Mr. Chanler. You can bet I have not lost my head. I am a t sentimentally in love with him. I have him and hope that ours will be a happy union. I believe that love is indecessary in marriage.

she married Prince Bariatinski of ia in 1890. They were separated in than a year and Cavalieri got a ree not long afterward. The singer erce not long afterward. The singer t appeared here in 1906 at the Metro-itan, and while her beauty attracted an attention not all the critics were rmed. She sang here again in 1907 I came here in 1908 under an assumed ne, having no engagement at the tropolitan. She said she was here for ommodore Warrington, for whom the destroyer is built of the highest and the majority interest-in the known as the Chamberlain, Kindt

Contest of Brothers and Sisters Thrown of the decorating firm of Cottier & Co., uary estate, worth about $100,000, was and the pews will be no doubt entirely sustained by the Appellate Division of filled by the bridal guests. The ceremarried at 11 o'cleck this morning at the one-third of the estate and made more by the Rev. Gordon Russell of Cranford, Mairie of the Eighth arrondissement of generous provision for his four brothers N.J. The bride will be given in marriage by and a sister in Scotland. The brothers her mother, Mrs. Henry Addison Alex-faith on their part.

WEDDINGS.

MILLBROOK, N. Y., June 18 .- Miss Frances leveland Lamont, daughter of Mrs. Daniel S. Lamont of New York city, was married to Francis Le Baron Robbins, Jr., son of the Rev. Dr. Francis Le Baron Robbins of Greenfield, Mass., at noon to-day in Grace Episcopal Church in this town. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Howard Chandler Robbins, a brother of the bridegroom, of St. Paul's Church, Englewood, N. J., and the Rev. Churles Gilbert of Grace N. J., and the Rev. Charles Gilbert of Grace Church. Charles L. Safford, organist of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, played selections from Wagner and the wedding march by Mendelssohn. Miss Lamont was escorted to the altar by her uncle, Orson Kinney, and was given in marriage by her mother. She was attended by her sisters, the Misses Elizabeth and Katharine Lamont, and by Miss Mary Alice Hobbins, a sister of the bridegroom. Shepard Ashman Morgan of New York was the best man. The ushers were Fl yd Reeves Smith, Henry Hopkins, Jr., Arthur Newell Cowperthwait, Marshall Bartholomew, Haroid Morton Landon and Prof. Lewis Perry of Williamstown, Mass. A wedding breakfast was given after the ceremony at Mrs. Lamont's country place, Altamont, in Milbrook. A special train transported the New York guests to and from Millbrook. Among those invited were Francis Lynde Stetson, the Hon. and Mrs. Levi P. Morton, Miss Mary Morton, Dr. and Mrs. Francis Le Baron Robbins, Mrs. Grover Cleveland, Miss Eather Cleveland, Col. Scott of West Point, Dean Andrew F. West of Princeton University, Albert Hopkins, Miss Alice Hopkins, Miss Betty Collamore, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Marshall, Harry Flagler, Miss Harriet Sabin, Miss Grace Henry, Miss Louise Knowtton, the Misses Harriet and Janetta Alexander, Rodman Gilder, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis and John Wing ad The bridegroom, a nephew of the Hon. Levi P. Morton, was graduated from Williams College in 1996 and from the Harvard law school. He is a member of Alpha Delta Phi. The bride's father was Secretary of War in President Cleveland's second as ministration. After a tripthrough the West Mr. and Mrs. Robbins will practise law. Church. Charles L. Safford, organist of

SOUTH WEYMOUTH, Mass., June 18 .- Miss Maud Louise Richardson of South Weymouth and Herbert Delavan Masson of New youth All H

Magoffin-Buckler.

Baltimone, June 1s.—Miss Lilly Buckler

Tuesday, June 21, will be attended by many prominent Britishers and New Yorkers. The bride made her social debut here a few seasons ago at the home of her grandmother. Mrs. David P. Morgan, 70 Park avenue. goffin this afternoon at Evergreen, the residence of the bride's brother, Dr. Hepburn Buckler, by the Rev. Dr. Edwin Barnes Niver, dence of the bride's brother, Dr. Hepburn and came here in 1908 under an assumed hame, having no engagement at the Metropolitan. She said she was here for a concert tour.

Before the season ended Oscar Hammerstein engaged her and billed her in "Thais." This led to a letter from Mary Garden to Hammerstein reminding him that she teld him she would resign the day Cavalleri was billed to sing her rôle. She did resign in the letter. The trouble was settled by Cavalleri, who said she didn't care about singing in "Thais" anyhow. It was then arranged for her to sing in "Daust," "La Bohème" and "Tosca,"

When Cavalleri came back to the Manhattan last season the critics agreed that hoth her singing and acting had improved, She made many appearances in "Hérodiade," and her Salome in that opera was accounted her most popular rôle during the season.

Herodo of Christ Church. The bride was piven away by her brother. Dr. S. Clark Lamberton of Philadelphia was best man Dr. Mazoffin is associate professor of history at the Johns Hopkins University. He is a native of Michigan and has true led and studied in Europe. He is a bachelor of arts of the University of Michigan and a fellow of Johns Hopkins. The bride belongs to a family that has for generations been conspicuous in Baltimore society. She is a daughter of the late Dr. Riggin liuckler, her sisters being the Baroness Von Klinkowsteroem and Miss Neilie and Mattie Buckler of New York.

Boston, June 18.—The wedding of Miss Barbara Higginson and Barrett Wendell, Jr., took place at St. John's Episcopal Church at Beverly Farms this afternoon Miss Higginson and a niece of Major Henry L. Higginson and an an eo of Major Henry L. Higginson and an eo of Major Henry L. Higginson and a niece of Major Henry L. Higginson and an ince of Major Henry L. Higginson and an eo of Major Henry L. Higginson and an ince of Major Henry L. Higginson and the major the major that the h accounted her most popular rôle during the season.

THE WARRINGTON LAUNCHED.

Newest Torpedo Destroyer Takes the Water at the Cramp Shippard.

PHILADELPHIA, June 18.—The U.S.S. Lewis Warrington, torpedo boat destroyer Mo. 30, was launched from the Cramps Shippard at 11:92 o'clock this morning. The sponsor was Mrs. Richard Hatton of Baltimore, a great-granddaughter of Commodore Warrington, for whom the ceremony there was a reception at the summer residence of the bride's Croasing.

Peacock-Roiston.

The destroyer is built of the highest grade of steel, and her design insures the greatest amount of strength with the least possible weight and bulk. She is impelled by twin screws driven by turbine engines of the Cramp-Zoelly marine the engines of the Cramp-Zoelly marine. The contract speed is thirty knots in long.

The armament of the destroyer consists of a factory of five 14 pounder semi-automatic guns, three 45 calibre deck fortises tubes and two small automatic guns. At the time of her launching she mid-her deck fittings, gun mounts, boilers and recessories in place.

Yew of Piays and Piayers.

The wedding of Miss Jean Roiston and Clarence Peacock took place yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Rolston, 19 West Fifty-first street. The ceremony was performed by the Rw. Dr. Ernest M. Stires, rector of St. Thomas's Church. The bride was attended by Miss Mabel B. Hooley of Plainfield, N. J., as maid of honor, and by the Misses Ray Hooley. Dorothy 'Smith, Marguerite Kennelly and Julia Littell as bridesmaids. Irene M. Peacock, a sister of the bride, was his brother's best man and Grant A. Peacock, a brother: Brown Roiston, Roswell G. Rolston, cousins of the bride, was his brother's best man and Grant A. Peacock, a brother: Brown Roiston, Roswell G. Rolston, 19 West Fifty-first street. The ceremony was perfectly and Mrs. Louis B. Rolston, 19 West Fifty-first street. The ceremony was perfectly and Mrs. Louis B. Rolston, 19 West Fifty-first street. The ceremony was perfectly and Mrs. Louis B. Rolston, 19 West Fifty-first street. The ceremony was perfectly and Mrs. Louis B. Rolston, 19 West Fifty-first street. The ceremony was perfectly and Mrs. Louis B. Rolston, 19 West Fifty-first street. The ceremony was perfectly and Mrs. Louis B. Rolston, 19 West Fifty-first street. The ceremony was perfectly and Mrs. Louis B. Rolston, 19 West Fifty-first street. The ceremony was perfectly middle and Mrs. Louis B. Rolston, 19 West Fifty-first street. The ceremony was perfectly middle an The wedding of Miss Jean Roiston and

Parks-Bentley.

Parks—Bentley.

The marriage of Miss Louise Mosber Bentley in Louise Mosber Bentley in Iowa and Illinois. Herethe theatres have been on the of the independents merely as affiliwith the independent movement.

Mine. Rappold Soloist.

The marriage of Miss Louise Mosber Bentley, daughter of Mrs. Maury Davis Bentley, daughter of Mrs. Maury Davis Bentley, of Detroit, Mich., and J. Lewis Parks, Jr., took place yesterday in Calvary Church, Fourth avenue and Twenty-first street. The ceremony was performed at 12 o'clock by the bridegroom's father, the Rev. Dr. J. Lewis Parks, the rector of the church. A family bridal breakfast followed. The bridegroom is the third son of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Parks and is a nephew of the Rev. Dr. leighton Parks, rector of St. Bartholomew's Church.

Liebert Wardwell.

Stanfolders the first week of October. She has been singing with the Metropolitan (pera Company in Florence and was lessed in lengthen her engagement there are singing with the Metropolitan (pera Company in Florence and was lessed in lengthen her engagement there are singing with the Metropolitan (pera Company in Florence and was lessed in lengthen her engagement there are singing with the Metropolitan (pera Company in Florence and was lessed in lengthen her engagement there was dealth of the Mardwell, and Mrs. Claison S. Wardwell, at the Wardwell, at the Wardwell residence, 196 Elm street, to Frederick Washington Liebert of New York by the Rev. Louis F. Berry of this city. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Margarise Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell, as maid of honor. The best man was J. Bradford Wardwell is a Mark Best man was J. Bradford Wardwell in the city. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mark Best man was J. Bradford Wardwell in the city. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mark Best man was J. Bradford Wardwell in the city. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mark Best man was J. Bradford Wardwell in the city. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mark Best man was J. Bradford Wardwell in

IN SOCIETY.

That the wedding to-morrow afternoon of Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and Miss The will of James Smith Inglis, head Eleanor Butler Alexander will be the biggest celebrated in June is a foregone which was executed in London on No- conclusion. The Fifth Avenue Presbyvember 30, 1907, two weeks before he terian Church, at Fifth avenue and Fiftydied, and gave his wife the entire reald- fifth street, is one of the big edifices here the Supreme Court yesterday as against mony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. two wills and a codicil executed earlier Henry M. Sanders, a great-uncle of the er and Mile. Lina Cavalieri were quietly in the year, which gave his wife only bride, at 4 o'clock, and he will be assisted conventional bridal attire of white satin with point lace and orange blossoms. There will be an elaborate musical service. Nahan Franko's orchestra will assist the usual choir. A temporary stage has been put up for their use.

The bride will be attended by Mrs. Snowden Fahnestock as matron of honor. M rs. Fahnestock was Miss Elizabeth Bertron. Her marriage with Mr. Fahnestock took place on June 1, when Miss Alexander was one of her bridesmaids, as was also Miss Harriet Alexander, who will be one of her cousin's bridesmaids to-morrow. Miss Janetta Alexander, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, will be a bridesmaid, and Miss Jessie Millington Drake is over from Paris to attend as bridesmaid. Miss Jean W. Delano, on the list, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Delano, Jr. Mrs. Fahnestock will wear her own bridal costume, which was of white satin with train.

of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Delano, Jr. Mrs. Fahnestook will wear her own bridal costume, which was of white satin with train.

Mr. Rooseveit will be assisted by Kermit Rooseveit, his brother, as best man. John W. Cutier of Brookline, Mass., son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Cutler, a classmate at Harvard of the bridegroom; Elliot Cutler, his brother; Fulton Cutting, Grafton Chapman, E. Morgan Gilbert, Francis Roohe, one of the twin sons of Mrs. Burke-Roche and a grandson of Frank Work; George Emlen Roosevelt, Monroe Douglas Robinson and Hamilton Fish, Jr., will be ushers. After the church ceremony there will be a reception at the residence of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, 4 West Fifty-eighth street. This being one of the big establishments here, with a fine ballroom, the large number of bridal guests expected oan find space. These will include relatives of the couple and friends generally in Washington and other piaces as well as in town. Mr. Roosevelt and his bride are going on to California to settle for a time. and friends generally in Washington and other places as well as in town. Mr. Rossevelt and his bride are going on to California to settle for a time. They have received a great number of valuable bridal gifts.

Miss Sara Elise Eustis and William Dun can Cameron are to be married to-mor-row at the home of the bride's father, John E. Eustis, Public Service Commis-sioner, on Morris Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas Sleane who will return from their annual European jaunt next month, will be the guests of Ambassador and Mrs. White-law Reid while in London.

Miss Julia Sands, whose marriage to Roland Dickson is to take place on Tuesday afternoon in Trinity Church Newport, is expected to make a very pretty bride. She is a daughter of the late Frederic P. Sands and a granddaughter of the late Admiral Simpson. The bride groom is a son of Mrs. Charles Taylor Dickson of Cincinnati, The Rev. Stanley C. Hughes, the rector of the church, will C. Hughes, the rector of the church, will perform the ceremony at 4 o'clock, and the bride will be given in marriage by her brother. Austin Ledyard Sands, who was married in Trinity Church last month to Miss Marianna Fullam. She will be attended by Miss Elizabeth Sands, her sister, as maid of honor, and there will be no bridearnaids. Mrs. Sands, the bride's mother, will give a reception at her cottage after the church ceremony, when about 250 bridal guests are expected.

Lord Acheson, to take place in St. George's Church, Hanover Square, on Next Wednesday, June 22, has been selected by Miss Beatrice Hart Bierck and Myron Reynolds for their wedding in St. George's Church, Stuyvesant Square The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Arthur S. Paysant, assistant rector of the church, and the Rev. Julius S. Bierck. of the church, and the Rev. Julius S. Bierck, an uncle of the bride, at 12 o'clock. Miss Bierck will be given in marriage by her father, Albert Boykin Bierck. She will be attended by the Misses Mildred Taylor and Lillie Geichard as bridesmaids and Miss Dorothy Martindale as maid of honor. Oliver C. Reynolds will assist his brother as beet man. Afterward the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boykin Bierck of Garden City, L. I., will give a bridal breakfast at the Waldorf-Astoria.

John de KovenBowen will be graduated from Yale on Wednesday, and on Saturday afternoon his marriage to Miss Elizabeth Winthrop Stevens will take place. Some of his classmates will assist him. It will be a very big affair, and the pews in old St. Mark's Church will be filled with bridal

The third wedding within a brief period in the Sands family will be that of Harold Aymar Sands, son of Mrs. William H. Sands of 104 East Thirty-sixth street, and Katherine Hynson McFadden, on next Saturday. The bride is a daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin McFadden of Philadelphia, now at their country place in Radnor, Pa., which will be the scene of the event. 'The bride will be attended by the Misses Lillie Newhall, Elizabeth Phillips, Marion Martin and Susan Welsh as bridesmaids. Mr. Sands will be assisted by Harold Minott as best man and by Austin L. Sands, Dudley Morgan, Paulding Fosdick, Emien Drayton, Fuller Potter and Thomas Monson as ushers.

THEATRICALS AT YALE. nencement Starts With Open Air

NEW HAVEN, June 18. - Yale's commence ment festivities were started to-night by the open air presentation of "The Taming of the Shrew" on the Yale campu by the Yale Dramatic Association. More than 3,000 attended the performance. Monday, July 4, has been selected by and it was very successful.

Miss Dorothy Randolph and John R. Fell The title rôle was taken by W. C. Bullit for their wedding at the cottage of the 1912, who is well known in Yale theatricals bride's father, Philip S. P. Randolph, at The leading man, Petruckio, was W. De F Narranganset: Pier. Mr. Fell is a son of Mrs. Alexander Van Rensselaer of Philadelphia by a former marriage. She was a Miss Drexel and is a sister of Anthony J. Drexel and John R. Drexel. Mr. Fell assisted as an usher at the marriage of his cousin, Anzhony J. Drexel, Jr., to Miss Marjorie Gould.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Orme Wilson left by Mr. and Mrs. M. Orme Wilson left by 1911. Mr. and Mrs. M. Orme Wilson left by 1911.

the Provence on Thursday for the other side. For several summers they have taken a European trip. Mr. and Mrs. M. Orme Wilson, Jr., who was Miss Borland, have been at the Gotham for a few days and are soon to leave for Europe.

The production was under the direction of Frank Lea Short. The stage was erected on the old Yale campus in front of the Linonia Library. The two largest elms were utilized to form a natural proseenium arch of green. In front a reproductin of the Elizabethan theatre was constructed.

Miss Helen Taft, daughter of the President, came here this evening to attend the commencement. She is the guest of Prof. Farnam, who will also be the host to President Taft when he comes on Wednesday. It was said by Mr. Farnam to-night that undoubtedly the President would be on hand. His son is a member of the senior class and will receive his diploma on Wednesday.

Prizes were aunounced to-day as fol-Thornton Wilson is also going to summer in Europe. Mrs. Joseph Palmer Kn applett yesterday on the Celtic accompanied by her son, Archibald G. Mollwaine 3d, who is a student at St. George's Church School, Newport. They will motor considerably in Switzerland, where Mr. Knappwill meet them in August. Mr. and Mrs. Hilary R. Chambers of 35 West Seventy-first street, who left yesterday on the Celtic, will be away all summer. The wealthy will be away all summer. The wealthy widow of Heber R. Bishop and her son and daughter. Ogden Bishop and Miss Mary C. Bishop, left for France on Thursday and will be absent all summer. Henry Clews, Jr., also sailed.

The wedding of Miss Mai Elmendorf Hackstaff, daughter of Charles L. Hackstaff, and Dr. John B. Walker on next Wednesday will not be large. The ceresting the subject of Curtiss's essay was "The Wednesday will not be large. The ceresting the subject of Curtiss's essay was "The Public Life of Henry Clay."

Gilbert discussed "The Public Life of Henry Clay,"
The Stanley mathematical prize was won by Everett Oyler Waters of New York, with the second prize for Bernard W. Schraff of Natchez, Miss. The DeForest mathematical prize was won by Theodore Henry Brown of Darien, Conn. This prize is given for worthy solutions of problems in pure and applied mathematics. Wednesday will not be large. The ceremony will be performed in St. Luke's Church, Easthampton, L. I., by the Rev. Dr. William T. Manuing, rector of Trinity Church. The bride will be given in marriage by her father and will be attended by her sister, Miss Caryl Hackstaff, as maid of honor. There will be no bridesmaids. Lawrence E. Sexton will assist as best man and Eugene A. H. Watson and Drs. W. Sohier Bryant and Myron P. Ibenton will be ushers. Afterward there will be a bridal breakfast at the Hackstaff summer cottage.

ACTOR'S WIFE SUES. Theodore Roberts Denies Her Charges and Says She is Extravagant.

HIGH WINDS CHECK FLIGHTS. appeared in "Jim the Penman," has been One Man Comes to Grief in the Indian- sued for divorce by his wife, Lucy C INDIANAPOLIS, June 18.- The crowd of mony and $1,500 counsel fees pending the less than 5,000 persons at the aeroplane action, and a motion to that effect will be exhibition at the Indianapolis Motor made in the Supreme Court to-morrow Speedway was considered indisputable Mrs. Roberts says her husband has an inevidence that the people had become come of $12,000 a year, which is based on a tired of witnessing exhibitions in which there was no competition either of men or machines, and the appears and $50 a week extra when he stages a

The aviators had all sorts of trouble misconduct with Florence Smith, an ac-tress, who, she says, has travelled with his company in this country and Canada. She declares that since her husband left their apartment at 605 West 111th street on March 27 last he has been seen in Bayonne and other places with Miss Smith. this afternoon with the wind and no less than half a dozen efforts were made for each event before the biplanes could be started. Even then the aviators would not risk high flights and from 200 to 300 feet was the limit.

A. L. Welsh, one of the Wright biplane pilots was seriously injured by a fall Roberts puts in a general denial and says that his wife has run up many bills. She bought $535 worth of coats and hats in one month, he says. He says he has been allowing her $45 a week.

$500,000 IN BURIED JARS. Queer Story of Find on Old Mexican Convent Site-Workmen Vanish.

A. L. Welsh, one of the Wright biplane pilots, was seriously injured by a fall this afternoon. He had reached a height of twenty or twenty-five feet and was circling around the course when his machine became unmanageable and fell to the ground. He was badly bruised and for a time it was feared that he had been killed. He was limp and unconscious when picked up but soon recovered sufficiently to leave the field.

Brookins was then called on and he delivered the goods in the form of a beautiful exhibition around the course. He took the machine up 200 feet and had a battle with the wind that was lively. Hoxsey made a second attempt to rise PUEBLA, Mexico, June 18. - The discov ery of ten earthen jars by workmen while excavating on the site of the old Carmne Convent and the report that the jars Hoxsey made a second attempt to rise at 5 o'clock, but the biplane jumped the monorail. It was not damaged. were filled with gold and silver coins aggregating more than $500,000 has caused a stir here.

monorail. It was not damaged.
An attempt was made to make a test of a big Wright biplane that is to be used in a trial for the endurance record of 4 hours and 14 minutes, held by Henry Farman. The machine has two large gasolene tanks and is much heavier than the single tank machines. In the trial the oar jumped the monorail and the attempt was not made again. The workmen, it is said, appropriated the money and disappeared in order to avoid having to pay it into the State Treasury as the law requires. Two of the workmen have been captured and part of the money recovered. The jars are said to have been buried more than 150 years ago.

AITKEN, SON & CO

Clearance Sale

Dresses, Coats and Hats

FOR CHILDREN AND YOUNG GIRLS

Regular Prices $15.00 to $50.00 3.00, 5.00, 7.50, 10.00, 15.00

Regular Prices $15.00 to $50.00 3.00, 5.00, 7.50, 10.00, 15.00

Regular Price $48.00. 15.00

Regular Prices $12.00 to $30.00 3.00, 5.00, 7.50

BROADWAY& 18" STREET

JOSEPH P. McHUGH & CO.

TIC THINGS FOR COUNTRY HOUSES OF THE PERIOD, ATTRACTIVELY SHOWN IN SPACIOUS

AND PLEASANT SALESROOMS. WHICH OF THEM-SELVES SUGGEST EFFECTIVE INDOOR AND OPEN AIR SCHEMES FOR HOME DECORATION.

YORK MAKE-

Occasional Tables: < THUGHWILLOW Tiltury Tea Carts: PURNITURE:

SINCE

McHughwillow Furniture is sold direct to the user at fixed prices, which are alike to all.

FOR SUMMER COMFORT:

Navy Canvas Hammock Swings with Portable Pipe Stands;

Contrexeville Lawn Canopies, Steel Tables and Chairs; English Garden Benches, Tables, Chairs and Plant Tubs; Seat Cushions and Back Pillows in "Liberty" Linens and Chintzes.

42D ST. WEST, at 5TH AVE.—OPPOSITE PUBLIC LIBRARY

It the Signs of the "Popular Shop" & the "Liberty" Furnishings. (Trade Marks Regd.) ONLY ADDRESS SINCE 1884-NO AGENTS, NO BRANCHES.

Charge orders can be filled at once from ample reserve stock always on hand.

Pique and Serge Coats,

Tailored Suits

Trimmed Hats

Long Chairs & Elbow Chairs:

Serving Trays & Muffineers:

LIGHT.

CLEAN.

Pique and Muslin Dresses,

Stern Brothers

To-morrow, Monday, Clearing Sale of

Women's & Misses' Trimmed Hats

$7.50 to 15.00 Women's Street and Dress Hats, Formerly $18.50 to 35.00 at $5.00. 7.50 Automobile Bonnets. Formerly $10.00 to 16.50 at $3.50 to 5.00 Misses' and Children's Hats, Formerly $5.00 to 14.50

Also a large assortment of

Panama Hats at Very Attractive Prices

An Important Offering of Very Desirable

Women's Undergarments At Specially Reduced Prices

Ranging from 69c to 2.50 Gowns, 39c " 1.25 Drawers. Chemises, 75c " 1.25 Corset Covers, Combinations, 1.50 " 3.50 Petticoats, 1.65 " 3.50

An Unusual Sale of Women's

Lawn and Batiste Waists

In the most desirable styles, trimmed with laces and embroideries,

at $1.50, 1.98, 2.25, 2.95, 3.95, 5.50

Very Much Below Prevailing Prices

Women's Outer Garments At Decided Reductions

Imported Evening Wraps, in a variety of models, at $58.00, 75.00 Formerly $98.00 to 145.00

Evening Wraps, Domestic Make, $19.75, 25.00, 45.00 Formerly $33.50 to 75.00

Pongee Paletots, at $11.75, 16.50, 22.50 Formerly $19.75 to 45.00

Also the Remainder of Imported Novelties.

at $110.00, 150.00 Formerly $225.00 to 350.00

Exceptional Values in

Men's & Women's Silk Umbrellas and High Grade Parasols

26 and 28 inch extra heavy Twilled Silk Umbrellas, in black, green and navy blue, choice assortment of handles, Taffeta Silk Parasols, in all the newest colorings, mair lone effects and rigured bliks, Values $3.00 to 3.75

Flowered Taffeta, Black and White Striped with Novelty Borders and Heavy Louisine Silk Parasols,

at $2.75, 4.50

Values $4.75 to 7.50

Special Sale of

Cotton Dress Fabrics

in Dress Lengths of Various Materials Including Voiles, Ginghams, French Dress Linens, Silk and Cotton Novelties, at

Much Less Than Half Their Former Prices

Also several hundred

Embroidered Robes, of Plain and Striped Batistes, Plain Poplins,

Linons and other fabrics in allover effects, with Embroidered Bands to match, in all colors and white, $2.50 Value $7.50 and 9.50

To-morrow, a large collection of

Housekeeping Linens

including a Special Importation of Pure Linen Hemstitched Sheets and Pillow Cases

At Considerable Reductions in Prices

OME DECORATION. Swing Seats & Settles:	Linen Sheets	Scalloped, "	.40,		7.75,
ELEGANT. Tilbury Tea Carts:	Pillow Cases	Hemstitched, Scalloped, Embroidered,		95c, 1.25, 1.25,	1.50,	1.90
SANITARY. Gathering Baskets & Hampers:	Bedspreads	Crochet, Satin Finish,			1.15,

1.35, 1.85, 2.25 Dimity, Summer Weight, 6.75, 7.50, 10.50 Irish Hand Embroidered, Huck Towels, Hemstitched, 2.90, 4.00, 5.38 Turkish Bath Towels, 2.90, 3.75, 5.38 with prepaid orders amounting to $75 the famous $5 Bar Harbor Cushioned Arm Chair is sent without charge; with $100 purchases the $7.50 Palm Beach Broad Arm and Basket Cushioned Arm Chair is given.

[Hustrated Booklet on McHughwillow Furfilture Free on Personal or Written Request. Also a purchase of Satin Damask Table Cloths, $1.75, 2.25, 2.70, 2.95

Doz. 1.75, 2.25, 2.65 Napkins, to match, 575 English Printed Bedspreads, at $1.25

Value $1.75 Prepaid purchases of Upholstery Stuffs and Wall Papers, amounting to $5, go carriage free all over the United States. 1075 Yds. Irish Satin Damask Table Linen, Visitors to New York Are Always Welcome to View the Very Notable Display. heavy weight, 72 inches wide, Value $1.25,

West Twenty-third Street

THE WINDS WITH MEN AND SERVICE TO